The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 10, to Saturday October 14, 1758.

Kenſington, October 14.

THE following Addreſs of the Chancellor, Maſters, and Scholars, of the Univerſity of Oxford, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Rev. Dr. Randolph, Preſident of Corpus Chriſti College, and Vice Chancellor of the Univerſity, together with the Rev. Dr. Gregory, Dean of Chriſt Church, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Chancellor, Maſters, and Scholars, of the Univerſity of Oxford.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Maſters, and Scholars, of the Univerſity of Oxford, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the great Succeſs, with which it has pleaſed Almighty God to bleſs the Arms of your Majeſty, and your Allies, in Defence of the juſt Rights of your Crown, againſt the Encroachments of an ambitious and perfidious Enemy.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty to accept our particular Congratulations for the Victories obtained by your Majeſty's brave Subjects and Allies. We cannot but rejoice to ſee the Enemy trapped in the Work of his own Hands, and the unjuſt Invaſion of your Majeſty's Territories returned on the treacherous Invaders.

To theſe we beg Leave to join our moſt hearty Congratulations on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in France, Aſia, Africa, and America; but more eſpecially on the Acquiſition of the moſt important Fortreſs of Louiſbourg, which we hope will be the greateſt Security to the Trade of this Nation, and the moſt effectual Check to the ambitious Views and injurious Encroachments of France.

It is our Duty, in the firſt Place, to return hearty Thanks to Almighty God, who hath bleſſed your Majeſty's Arms with Victory, and delivered us, and our Allies, contrary to the ſanguine Expectations of the Enemy, and beyond all human Appearance and Probability. In the next Place, our grateful Acknowledgments are due to your Majeſty. To the Wiſdom and Influence of your Majeſty's Counſels, to the prudent Diſpoſition of our Fleets, and to the Conduct and Courage of our Officers, Soldiers, and Sailors, we owe, under God, theſe ſignal Succeſſes.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty to accept our moſt ſincere and hearty Thanks for the many and great Bleſſings, which we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, by whoſe Care and Prudence we are enabled to purſue our Studies, and enjoy the Bounty of our Founders and Benefactors, in Security, free from the Miſeries and Calamities of War.

To theſe our Congratulations, we beg Leave to add our moſt ſolemn Aſſurances of inviolable Duty and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, and Government; faithfully promiſing to bring up the Youth committed to our Care, in Principles of Virtue, Religion, and Loyalty to your Majeſty; and praying to Almighty God to grant your Majeſty a long and happy Reign over us, to crown all your Attempts with Succeſs, and enable your Majeſty to put an End to a juſt and neceſſary War, by a ſafe, honourable, and laſting Peace.

Given at our Houſe of Convocation, this Tenth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, 1758.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, of the Borough of Portſmouth, in the County of Southampton, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. Lord Anſon: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, of the Borough of Portſmouth, in the County of Southampton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, of your Borough of Portſmouth, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, with our moſt ardent Congratulations on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, in the important Conqueſt of Louiſbourg, the Reduction of the Iſlands of Cape Breton and Saint John, the Diminution of the French Navy, and on the other Advantages gained over your inveterate Enemies, in the Courſe of this auſpicious Year.

That the Divine Providence may bleſs your Majeſty's Councils and Arms, and thoſe of your great and good Ally the King of Pruſſia, with a Train of Proſperities, till your and his Enemies are reduced to the Terms of a ſafe and honourable Peace; that your Majeſty may live long, beloved by your People; and that your Crown may deſcend to your Illuſtrious Poſterity, till Time ſhall be no more, are the moſt ſincere and conſtant Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Portſmouth, October 10, 1758.

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, and loyal Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs of the States of the Iſland of Jerſey, having been tranſmitted by Lieutenant General Huſke, Governor of the ſaid Iſland, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the States of your Majeſty's Iſland of Jerſey.

YOUR Majeſty's ancient and faithful Subjects, the States of your Iſland of Jerſey, warm'd with the higheſt Zeal, and with Hearts full of the the trueſt Loyalty, moſt humbly beg Leave to expreſs their unfeigned Joy upon the late ſignal Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, by gaining Poſſeſſion of the important Fortreſs and Harbour of Louisbourg, with the Ships of War in it. A Succeſs highly tending to the Honour of your Majeſty, and of your Government, and to the Diſgrace of your Enemies, who had in vain uſed their greateſt Efforts to prevent ſuch an Event; which cannot fail to produce the moſt happy Conſequences, as thereby their naval Power is ſenſibly affected, and a Proſpect open'd for putting a ſpeedy Stop to their Encroachments in America.

The Terror ſpread along the French Coaſt, by deſtroying the Shipping at St. Malo's, from which the Navigation of your Subjects of England was greatly annoyed, and this Iſland continually threatned; the demoliſhing the riſing and favourite Harbour of Cherbourgh, with the Ships and Fortifications about it; are ſtriking Proofs of the Superiority of your Majeſty's Arms.

We ſee, with peculiar Satisfacton, the Preparations of an Invaſion againſt this Iſland render'd for the preſent abortive, by the wiſe Meaſures of your Majeſty's Government, carried into Execution by Perſons of diſtinguiſhed Zeal, with a prudent and ſteady Reſolution, who had taken uncommon Pains to make themſelves acquainted with the neighbouring Coaſt.

The Works of Fortification, which your Majeſty hath lately been moſt graciouſly pleaſed to order to be carried on for the better Security and Defence of this your Iſland, are freſh and ſpeaking Marks of your Majeſty's great Goodneſs towards us, of your paternal Care for our Preſervation, and claim our higheſt Thankfulneſs, and the ſtrongeſt Returns of Zeal and Loyalty.

May the Inſolence and unwarrantable Devaſtations of your Majeſty's Enemies againſt your Electoral Dominions ſoon be effectually check'd! May Succeſs continue to attend your Majeſty's Arms in all Parts, for the eſtabliſhing the Happineſs and Tranquillity of your Reign, by the procuring to your People a ſafe, laſting, and honourable Peace!

Permit us to declare, that as our Attachment to the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover will ever remain unalterable, ſo our moſt hearty and ſincere Wiſhes for it's Proſperity will never ceaſe.

We are,

Iſland of Jerſey, Sept. the 21ſt, 1758.

Your Majeſty's Moſt dutiful, and Ever Loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Town of Southampton, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Hans Stanley, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Town of Southampton, in Common-Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Town of Southampton, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave, with our Fellow Subjects, to congratulate your Majeſty on the late ſignal Advantages gained by your victorious Arms over the common Enemy and reſtleſs Diſturber of the Peace of Europe.

By theſe Advantages we are convinced that the Wiſdom and diſintereſted Meaſures of your Councils will always inſpire a Confidence of Succeſs, and an Ardour for obtaining it in your Majeſty's Fleets and Armies.

The Reduction of the Fortreſs of Louisbourg in particular, with its Dependencies, is an Event of ſo great Importance to the Honour of our Country, and has given ſuch a fatal Stroke to the French in the two Reſourſes of their Power, Trade and Navigation, as afford a reaſonable Ground to hope that they will ſoon be reduced to the Neceſſity of ſupplicating for a Peace, which, when it ſhall be granted to them, we aſſure ourſelves, will be ſuch a one as ſhall be glorious for your Majeſty, and ſatisfactory to all your People.

Our Prayers in the mean Time, to the only giver of all Victory, ſhall be fervent and conſtant for an Increaſe of Years to your Majeſty's Life and Reign, and of Proſperity to your Kingdoms, and that it may pleaſe him to add a Perpetuity to the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your mild and gracious Government.

Given under our common Seal, the Fifth Day of October, in the Thirty-ſecond Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

Whitehall, October 14.

By a Letter from Admiral Boſcawen to Mr. Secretary Pitt, dated Louiſbourg Harbour, the 13th of September laſt, the following Account of the Inhabitants on the Iſland of St. John has been received.

Point le Prince	——	700
N. E. River	——	2000
St. Peters	——	700
North Point	——	500
Weſt and N° River	——	200

Lieutenant Colonel Lord Rollo writes to the Admiral, that moſt of the ſaid Inhabitants had brought in their Arms.

The Admiral's Letter further contains, that by the beſt Accounts he can get, the ſaid Iſland of St. John has been the only Supply for Quebec, of Corn and Beef ſince the War, except what has been brought from Europe, having at preſent above 10,000 horned Cattle, and many of the Inhabitants declare they grow each of them 1200 Buſhels of Corn annually; they have no other Market for it but Quebec: It has been an Aſylum of the French Inhabitants from Nova Scotia; and from this Iſland has been conſtantly carried on the inhuman Practice of killing the Engliſh Inhabitants of Nova Scotia, for the Sake of carrying their Scalps to the French, who pay them for the ſame: Several Scalps were found in the Governor's Quarters, when Lord Rollo took Poſſeſſion.

Petersbourg, Sept. 8. Marſhal Apraxin died of an Apoplexy on Tueſday Morning laſt; and it is ſaid he will be buried with the Honours due to his Rank.

Leghorn, Sept. 25. On Saturday the 23d Inſtant, Rear Admiral Broderick arrived in this Port with his Britannick Majeſty's Ships the Prince, Culloden, and Guernſey. As ſoon as theſe Ships have taken in their Water, and other Neceſſaries, they will directly proceed to Sea again.

Hambourg, Oct. 3. The Ruſſians have evacuated Landſberg, and are retreating towards Pruſſia. Count Dohna is ſtill in Purſuit of them.

The

The Swedes ſuſtained a conſiderable Loſs on the 28th paſt at Fehrbellin, where a Detachment of 1400 of their Men were attacked by a Body of Pruſſians, and totally defeated; the Loſs of the Swedes is computed at 500 killed, wounded and Priſoners, beſides two ſmall Pieces of Cannon.

Hague, Oct. 3. Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Royal ſet out for Soeſdyck this Morning.

By Letters from Dreſden, the King of Pruſſia has made a Motion towards Bautzen, with a View to bring Marſhal Daun to a Battle, or to force him to retire into Bohemia. In the mean while, the Swedes have been worſted in ſeveral Encounters, and have retired towards Mecklenbourg, owing to the Prince of Bevern's coming upon their Flank, from Stettin, with a Corps of of ſeven Battalions, 1200 Horſe, and a Body of Light Troops, with which he leaves them no Reſt.

General Oberg was within a German Mile of Caſſel, at Ober-Vilmer, on the 27th paſt, after having been joined by the Prince of Yſembourg. The Prince of Soubize was encamped near the Town upon the Height of Kratzenberg.

Hague, Oct. 6. The Armies upon the Lippe are juſt where they were; and as General Oberg arrived a few Hours too late, to cut the Prince of Soubize off from Caſſel, he could only take an advantageous Poſition near him. It is very certain however, that the French are ſending their heavy Baggage and their Equipages towards Hanau; and it is generally believed, that they will endeavour ſoon to follow them, if they can do it without running too great a Riſk.

Hague, Oct. 7. All the Letters by the Hambourg Poſt, which is juſt arrived, agree, That the Ruſſians are certainly gone. They evacuated Landſberg on the 21ſt paſt, and, on the 26th, had paſſed Stargard. The Pruſſians had entered Landſberg ſoon after. The further Accounts, by the ſame Letters, are, That the Swedes have been ſurprized at Fehrbellin: That the French are ſtill at Caſſel, and General Oberg in Sight of them: That the King of Pruſſia is endeavouring to get round Marſhal Daun's Right Flank, and to force him to a Battle if poſſible: And that Prince Henry has cut off the Prince of Deux Ponts from getting any Subſiſtance in Saxony. Marſhal Contades has made a Detachment to endeavour to relieve the Prince of Soubize; and, at the ſame Time, appeared by his Diſpoſitions to have ſome Deſign againſt the Left Flank of the Allied Army, where Prince Ferdinand is well prepared to receive him.

Hurſborne, October 12, 1758.

Whereas a ſufficient Number of Gentlemen did not offer to ſerve as Officers for the Militia of the Iſle of Wight, at the Meeting appointed for that Purpoſe; Notice is hereby given by His Majeſty's Governor of the ſaid Iſland, that all further Proceedings in the Execution of the ſeveral Acts of Parliament for raiſing the Militia of the ſame Iſland, is hereby ſuſpended until next Year.

PORTSMOUTH.

Royal Hoſpital for Seamen at Greenwich,
Juue 17, 1758.

To the Agents of all Prizes taken by His Majeſty's Ships of War.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament paſſed in the 29th Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better ſecuring the Payment of Shares of Prizes, taken from the Enemy, to the Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich, all Perſons appointed Agents for the Sale of Prizes taken by His Majeſty's Ships, are required, under Penalty of 100 l. to deliver unto the Treaſurer of the Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich, or his Deputy, in three Months after the firſt Payment or Diſtribution to the Captors of any Prizes or Prizes, an Account, under their Hands, of the Produce of ſuch Prize or Prizes, by them diſtributed, together with an Account of the ſeveral Shares as ſhall have been by them reſpectively paid to the Captors. And whereas the ſame has not been regularly complied with, Notice is hereby given to ſuch Agents who have neglected the ſame, forthwith to deliver in the ſaid Accounts as above directed; and it is expected that all Perſons who are now, or may hereafter be appointed Agents to Prizes, do, from Time to Time, ſtrictly conform to what is enjoined in the ſaid Act of Parliament, or they will incur the Penalties thereby directed.
